A Bold Step.

To overcome the well-grounded and reasonable objections of the more intelligent to the use of secret, medicinal compounds, Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., some time ago, decided to make a bold departure from the usual course pursued by the makers of put-up medicines for domestic use, and so has published broadcast and openly to the whole world, a full and complete list of all the ingredients entering into the composition of his widely celebrated medicines. Thus he has taken his numerous patrons and patients into his full confidence. Thus too he has removed his medicines from among secret nostrums of doubtful merits, and made them remedies of known composition. By this bold step Dr. Pierce has shown that the formulas of such medicines, which he is not afraid to subject them to the fullest scrutiny.

Not only does the wrapper of every bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, his famous medicine for weak stomach, liver or biliousness, and all catarrhal diseases wherever located, have printed upon it in plain English, a full and complete list of all the ingredients composing it, but the book has been compiled from numerous standard medical works, of all the different schools of practice, containing the writings of leading practitioners of medicine, endorsing in the strongest possible manner, and every ingredient contained in Dr. Pierce's medicines. One of these little books will be mailed free to any one sending address on postal card or by letter, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and requesting the same. From this little book it will be learned that Dr. Pierce's medicines contain no alcohol, narcotics, mineral agents or other poisonous or injurious agents, and that they are made from pure medicinal roots of great value; also that some of the most valuable ingredients contained in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for weak, nervous, over-worked, "run-down," nervous and debilitated women, are the most valuable of the Indian's secret remedies, long years ago, by the Indians for similar ailments affecting their squaws. In fact, one of the most valuable medicinal plants entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was known to the Indians as "Squaw-Weed." Our knowledge of the uses of a few of our most valuable native medicinal plants was gained from the Indians. As made up by improved and exact processes, the "Favorite Prescription" is a most efficient remedy for regulating all the woman's functions, correcting displacements, as prolapsus, antenatal and retention, overcoming painful periods, bringing up the system and bringing about a perfect state of health. Sold by all dealers in medicine.

CARDINAL GIBBONS IN WASHINGTON.

Yesterday was "Cardinal's Day" in Washington. Ambassadors, Ministers and officials of great world powers yesterday gathered at St. Patrick's Church to honor Cardinal Gibbons.

The assembly yesterday included many officials and prominent citizens of other churches as well as those of the Catholic faith. Rev. John J. Murray, of Baltimore, celebrated mass. Later a luncheon was served in honor of the cardinal to the prominent guests in St. Patrick's rectory. Late yesterday evening the cardinal returned to his home in Baltimore.

The sanctuary of the church was filled to overflowing long before 11 o'clock yesterday morning, and soon the remainder of the space in the church was taken up by those who stood throughout the mass.

The pontifical procession formed in the rectory. It was headed by the cardinal, and in it walked priests from the various parishes of Washington, priests from the Catholic University of America, and the sanctuary choir of St. Patrick's. Swinging censers were carried by altar boys, and many candles shed their light over the scene.

Down the aisle of humanity the procession passed, and into the church, where, as the cardinal approached, the congregation rose. He was conducted to his seat under the red canopy by Rev. Dr. William T. Russell, pastor of St. Patrick's.

Then Rev. Dr. Murray began the celebration of the mass, assisted by priests from the Holy Cross Academy and the Catholic University of America.

The sermon was preached by Rev. Edward A. Pace, professor of philosophy at the Catholic University of America. A reception was held at the rectory at noon, and those who attended and shook hands with the cardinal numbered several thousand. Following the reception, which lasted for more than an hour, the aged prelate said that he had not become in the least fatigued. The cardinal never lost his characteristic smile as he people filed before him.

Among those at the luncheon in honor of the cardinal, which was served in the rectory, were: Speaker Cannon, Senators Elkins, Beveridge, Carter, Overman, Taylor and Aldrich; Justices White and McKenna; Representatives Olcott, G. Alden, Ransdell, Furness and Fitzgerald.

MURDER AND SUICIDE.

F. B. Kimbler, a prominent farmer living near Ballinger, Texas, killed his wife, his 6-year-old son and 3-year-old daughter, fatally wounded his niece, aged 20, and ended his own life by cutting his throat from ear to ear with a pocket-knife, at daylight yesterday morning.

Kimbler had been in bad health for a couple of months, but got up at the usual time yesterday morning, and was assisting his wife in making the fire. He stepped out and secured a hatchet, ostensibly to cut kindling.

Returning to the room where his wife was starting the fire, with the hatchet in his hand, he said:

"Wife, we have all got to go," and split her head open with one blow of the hatchet. Going over to the bed, where the children were asleep, he battered their brains out with the hatchet, and going to his niece's room, he struck her several blows on the head and arms.

By this time a young man, a nephew of Kimbler, was aroused, and he and the badly wounded young woman made their escape. Returning to the room where his wife lay unconscious on the floor, Kimbler used a pocket-knife to end his own life.

MURDER AND SUICIDE.

Mr. Kimbler and the baby lived for five or six hours but the 6-year-old boy was instantly killed. The young woman is in a serious condition and her recovery is doubtful. Kimbler has been living in that county for a number of years, was a successful farmer, a county officer in the farmers' union, and was intelligent and popular with his neighbors.

TIED TO RAILROAD TRACK.

Because Daniel J. Matthews, a young fireman of the Central of Georgia Railway, refused to give four armed negroes a switch key, he was tied face downward on the main line of the Central road at the corner of Hazel and Second streets, Macon, Ga., at an early hour yesterday morning. He now lies in a critical condition at a hospital, being struck a few minutes after he was attacked by an east-bound passenger train.

MATTHEWS, AFTER REGAILING CONSCIOUSNESS YESTERDAY, STATED THAT HE WAS TIED TO THE NECK SO TIGHTLY THAT HE COULD MAKE NO CRY.

Matthews was frightfully mangled. A severed leg bound with ropes to the track showed the atrocity to which he had been subjected. He was found by a track walker and taken to the hospital.

He turned suddenly upon Mrs. Pauline Russell, who was driving him and his mates through a rehearsal, knocked her to the floor of the cage with a swing of his forepaw, and tore her throat so badly that she may never live to walk out of the hospital.

Mrs. Russell is about 40 years old, and a widow. She has been making a living for herself and children ever since her husband died, six years ago, working on salary for animal exhibitors all over the country. She had been on the road with a troupe of performing
